(E002/2º)

A close-up photograph of a grey metal casting. In the upper left, there is a circular opening containing a dark, possibly blue-tinted, component. To the left of the main text, a portion of a hexagonal bolt head is visible. The surface of the casting is textured and shows signs of wear. The number '8200 15639 1' is stamped into the metal in a raised, sans-serif font.
